Pursuant to Article 4.4 of the Code of Ethics of College ESLG for Students, the Disciplinary and Ethics Committee of the Faculty of Real Estate Management at the meeting held in correspondence on 10.10.2017 renders the following:

DECISION

To issue a written warning to student [redacted] for abuse in trying to be engaged in the plagiarism while writing diploma thesis.

REASONING

Article 4.4 of the Code of Ethics for Students provides for the type of abuse which is: "Attempt to be engaged or engagement in the theft of intellectual property of someone else". On the other hand, Article 4.8 of the Code foresees that the acts that damage or discredit the interests of the College are punishable". On 15.09.2017, the student approaches the thesis mentor and asks him to find someone to assist the student to write the diploma thesis on her behalf because of her work engagement. This statement is an attempt to be engaged in the violation of articles 4.4 and 4.8, the Disciplinary Committee of the Faculty decided to render the disciplinary measure of written warning. In the event of repetition of any abuse of the same gravity, the Committee may consequently render the measure of suspension from the educational process.
